

Mollie
90 days

Meet Mollie — 90 days—Mollie was brought to LMAS by her owners because they had a new puppy and didn't want her anymore. This is really a sad case. She had a little separation anxiety and quickly became attached to the employees who cared for her. She has to be the only animal in the home, but for the right home, she will be perfect.

Sissy
84 days

Meet Sissy — 84 days—Look at that smile! Sissy entertains herself and everyone around her with her energy and spunk. Though she is not good with cats, she desperately wants a loving home after spending 84 days with LMAS.

Bernie
32 days

Meet Bernie — 32 days—Bernie is a boxer brought to LMAS as a stray. He is 3 years old and has lots of energy. He needs training but will quickly become a great member to any family.

Jade
84 days

Meet Jade — 81 days—Jade was fearful and nervous at first, but who can blame her. She was pulled from a bad situation and brought to a loud shelter. Since then, she has warmed up and is a staff favorite.

Duchess
50 days

Meet Duchess—50 days—Duchess was dropped off at LMAS on December 8, 2015. Duchess is energetic and trainable. She shows great potential for being a great family pet.

LuLu
43

Meet LuLu—43 days—LuLu is a big hit with volunteers at the Manslick facility. She behaves well on leash. She can be a little shy when you first meet her, she will quickly warm up to the right person.

Rex is 1.5 years old and has been with LMAS 50 days. He was picked up as a stray. Rex has been neutered and has all his vaccinations. He currently lives at the Manslick Road shelter.

Nova is 1.5 years old. She came to LMAS in very bad shape but is much healthier now. She is well socialized and friendly.

Benjamin is 7 months old and has been with LMAS for 105 days. He has never known anything else. He has had several interested adopters, but for no reason of his own, he just hasn't found the one yet.

Sonya is about a year old and has spent 141 days in the shelter looking for that forever home. She is shy but curious. Given time she will make a perfect companion.
